Think About the Readings?

Is 35:1-6a, 10

The prophet Isaiah taught his community to “be strong, fear not!” because God has planned a remarkable future where both the people and the land will be restored. Is there a friend or co-worker who needs your encouragement this week?

Jas 5:7-10

James encourages his community to be patient and firm of heart in waiting for the coming of the Lord. What are you waiting for during this Advent season?

Mt 3:1-12

In prison, John the Baptist seemed uncertain about who Jesus is. Who do you talk to when you have questions about Jesus?

Mass Intention & Sanctuary Lamp

Both are meaningful ways to offer prayers for loved ones or special intentions.

Mass Intentions are mentioned during the liturgy and remembered by the priest throughout the Mass. Mass Intention offerings go to the priest who celebrates the Mass.

Sanctuary Lamps burn near the tabernacle to honor Christ's presence. Though always lit, intentions are offered for a full week. (Note: Not all parishes offer this.) Donations for this request cover candle and other Mass costs.

Some Parishes
have 2025
space

These intentions can be requested by anyone—for birthdays, anniversaries, prayers of thanksgiving, and especially in remembrance of deceased loved ones.

Have a special prayer you'd like prayed for?

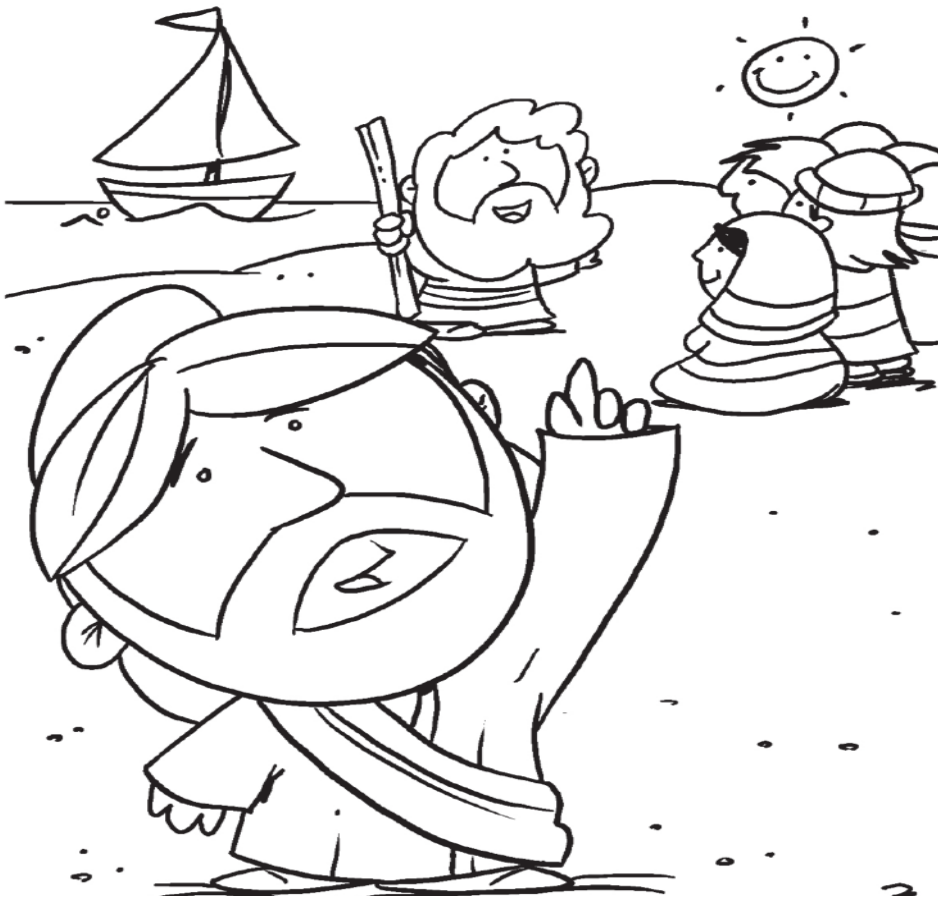

Stop by your Rectory during Office Hours and request your Mass Intention or Sanctuary Lamp! Some Parishes offer ways to make your request if you are not able to make it during office hours. Check with yours to find out your options.

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

Sharing the Gospel

Name someone that you think is very important. Jesus said that John the Baptist was the greatest man ever born. John the Baptist did not live in a big house or wear nice clothes. He was not the president, and he did not own a huge company. You would probably think he was very poor. But John the Baptist was truly great because he loved and trusted God with his whole heart.

He helped other people follow God, too.

Prayer

Dear God,
show me ways to help my friends follow You too.

My Weekly Mission

I will find ways to make things easier for those I am around this week.
